5 v.

6 UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT,

7 Defendant

8 Plaintiff filed an application to proceed in forma pauperis (IFP) and pro se complaint.
9 (ECF Nos. 9, 2-1.) The court granted Plaintiff's IFP application, and screened his pro se
10 complaint. The allegations appeared to have no basis in law or fact and instead, they were 11 fantastical and delusional. The court nevertheless gave Plaintiff an opportunity to amend to state
12 a claim. (ECF No. 10.) His amended complaint was due on or before March 8, 2023. On March 13 4, 2023, Plaintiff filed a document stating he was filing for an amended complaint, but he did not
14 include an amended complaint. (ECF No. 12.) On August 14, 2023, the court gave Plaintiff one 15 final opportunity to file his amended complaint on or before September 5, 2023. Plaintiff was 16 cautioned that a failure to timely file an amended complaint would result in the dismissal of this
17 action. (ECF No. 17.)

18 Plaintiff did not timely file an amended complaint. Therefore, this action is DISMISSED
19 WITH PREJUDICE and the court shall ENTER JUDGMENT accordingly.

20 IT IS SO ORDERED.
